

MORE SHIPS MISSING; RAIDER HAS AIDES, CLAIMED

GERMANS TAKE MOVING PICTURES OF STEAMERS SINKING TO DEPTHS

The Log of the Radnorshire, A Victim of Raider
The German raider took moving pictures of her work in destroying allied merchant men.
Had a consort, apparently a captured ship, manned by German crew.
Confined the Radnorshire's crew under decks for five days with Hindus and "other rough-necks."
Had orders to spare all passengers and all vessels carrying big cargoes.
Sent the Hudson Maru "prison ship"—off Pernambuco with barely enough water and sea biscuit for crew and prisoners.
Sank the Radnorshire on January 8; two other vessels on the ninth and a third on the tenth—all by exploding bombs on either side, after taking their choice of cargo and permitting crews to leave with personal belongings. Had mighty watchful eyes, since sighted the Radnorshire at night in spite of the fact that the Radnorshire's skipper had "doused" his lights.
Had a speed of at least 18 knots.
Radnorshire's crew donned life belts when the German man came alongside.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 19.—Nine Americans were included in the crews of two vessels sunk or captured by the German raiders in the South Atlantic, according to a state department dispatch from Consul James B. Stewart at Pernambuco.
The department message, with portions deleted by officials, follows:
"Hudson Maru brought 237 Saint Theodore crew. List showed nine Americans: Ben Stevens, Royal Gregory, Frank McFee, David Johnson, E. Judy, all colored; and Fred Smith, Harry Picot and Guy Van Doren.
"Minich shows Charley Jones. No Americans on other vessels named. All nine here safe."

Buenos Aires, Jan. 19.—Not only the raider now believed to be the Moewe, but two or more German commerce destroyers are still ploughing the sea somewhere around South America and by this time have taken further toll of allied shipping. Dispatches from Rio De Janeiro today stated that survivors from the Japanese steamer Hudson Maru had declared the British merchantman St. Theodore first of the captures made by the German raider, had been armed and outfitted.

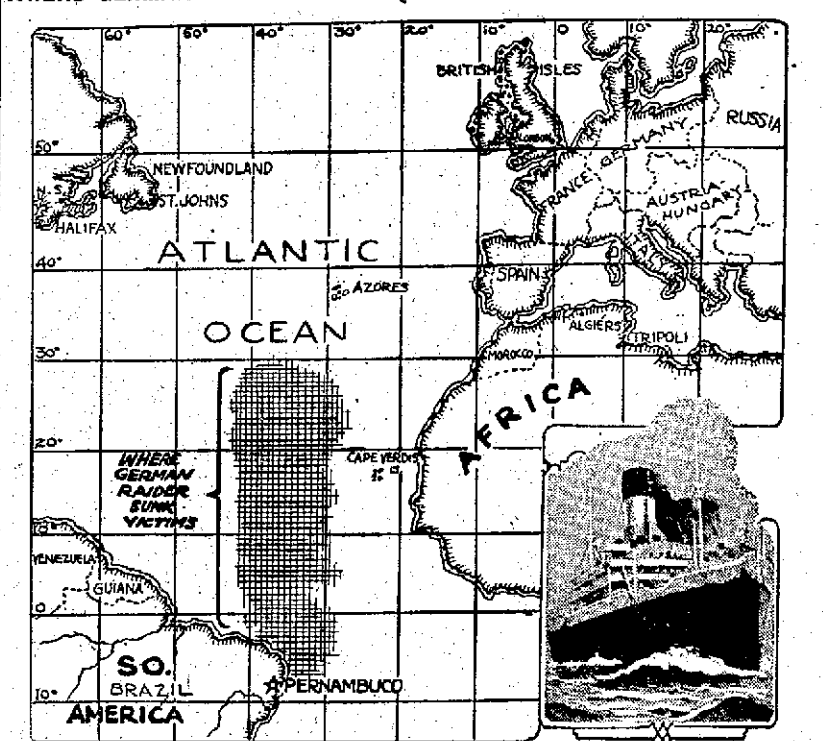

The Theodore was used as a consort, the survivors landed at Pernambuco said. That she and the German raider steamed together in marauding operations, was also confirmed in the log of the captain of the British steamer Radnorshire, which mentioned being pursued and then captured by two strangers. The same log mentioned the German commander of the raider explaining his instructions were to spare vessels carrying large cargoes. This was

WHERE GERMAN RAIDER BAGGED QUARRY AND LINER VOLTAIRE, SUNK

Twenty million dollars worth of allied shipping have been destroyed in the North Atlantic by the latest German sea terror, according to well authenticated reports. One of the latest vessels was the French liner Voltaire, which left Liverpool for New York on November 28 and was never heard from again. She was of 8,618 tons gross, 485 feet long, 58 feet beam and was built at Glasgow in 1907.

Regrets That Trainmen Recinded Strike Order, Says Brotherhood Head

Washington, D. C., Jan. 19.—Regret that the railroad brotherhoods rescinded their strike order of last summer, which resulted in passing of the Adamson eight hour law, was expressed today by W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen. He protested to the house interstate commerce committee, against passage of strike prevention legislation.
Lee, in an impassioned statement declared:
"I believe we will never have another nation-wide strike."
He said there may be small, intermittent strikes, but never one involving all employees of railroads from coast to coast.

Wilson Must Mark Time In Peace Moves

Washington, D. C., Jan. 19.—There is no immediate prospect of President Wilson making another open move in the international peace game.
There appears to be nothing he can do at present—openly at least—toward speeding up the peace machinery.
The president feels that the recent exchange between this government and the belligerents have materially added momentum to peace discussion and a tactless move at this time might retard accomplishment of his objective.

The vessel was coming here from Cardiff and while in the

Man Held For Double Killing Denies His Guilt

Oklahoma City, Okla., Jan. 19.—With John Couch in the hands of the federal authorities at Guthrie to answer a trivial federal indictment, state officials today were anxious to know just how long it would be before Couch would have to answer the charges of murder made against him after yesterday's double shooting. Couch denies the killing of Rowland Williams, musician, and Miss Nellie Dunn, school teacher, a sister-in-law of the accused.
Interest today centered in the story of Lee Craig, chauffeur who carried Couch about town, not knowing that death followed in his path. Craig took Couch out to the Wheeler school, where Miss Dunn was shot in the head and killed. Couch, according to Craig, was not in the school building over ten minutes. Returning Couch instructed the driver to take him to West Second street, where he jumped out of the car and went up the stairs towards Williams' office. A minute later Williams was found fatally wounded, but no one could be found who saw the murder. In the middle of the afternoon, Couch appeared in Guthrie, thirty miles distant and surrendered to federal authorities on a charge of sending obscene matter through the mails. Craig denied all knowledge of the killings.
Peering mob violence, Couch last night showed uneasiness in the federal jail.

ANOTHER WOMAN MAY BE DRAGGED INTO LEAK PROBE

KILLS MAN WHO GAVE HIM SHELTER

Cleveland, O., Jan. 19.—Lawrence Southall, a slender boy of 14, today confessed, police say, that he killed Charles James, D. & O. railroad inspector, last night by beating him over the head with a heavy scale iron while James was asleep.
James invited the boy into his railroad shanty last night when he appeared at the door hungry and nearly frozen. Lawrence told the police he robbed James of 35 cents and a watch and bought cigarettes and something to eat.
The boy formerly lived in Chicago with his foster parents. He drifted down to Columbus, Nashville, and then came here, he said.

YEAR'S CAPTURES BY RUSSIANS

Petrograd, Jan. 19.—Four hundred and twenty German soldiers and 8,770 German officers were captured by Russian troops during the year 1916, according to figures published by the Service Journal today in reviewing Russia's war achievements for the 12 months past. In addition to these captures of men, Russian forces also took 525 cannon, 1,661 machine guns and 421 trench mortars and mine throwers. Of the booty—both in men and guns—it is estimated that 80 per cent came from General Brusiloff's three months' operation on a 300-mile front.

Invasion of Switzerland Contemplated By Germans To Free Alsace, Report

Indians See Bodies In The Desert, Report

El Centro, Cal., Jan. 19.—Another report of the finding of the bodies of Lieutenant Colonel Bishop and Lieutenant Robertson was brought here today. This one is to the effect that Indians saw the two bodies under the wreck of the aeroplane in the Black Hole region of the Sonora desert. As soon as possible a searching party is to be despatched from the Gadsden ranch to investigate. Some credence is given to this story here.

DISASTER OVERTAKES TEUTONS, SAY THE RUSSIANS

London, Jan. 19.—"Disaster has overtaken the enemy," said a wireless dispatch from Petrograd via Rome today. "The bridges over the Danube have been swept away by currents and the Russo-Rumanian armies are advancing on a wide front."

Charge Of Plot Against Wilson "Gallery Play," Says Counsel

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 19.—Characterizing it as a "gallery play" designed to prejudice the public mind, Bourke Cockran, chief counsel for the defense in the Thomas Mooney murder trial today denied the charge brought by the prosecution in its opening statement that Mooney, Miss Eleanor Fitzgerald, Alexander Berkman, Edward Nolan and others were in connection with a conspiracy to assassinate President Wilson and overthrow the government.
The prosecution's new allegations were voiced by Deputy District Attorney Edward Cunha. He asserted the alleged plot began a year ago and he quoted an editorial printed by "The Blast," a radical paper, edited by Alexander Berkman last March, headed "Inciting Violence." After referring to reports that certain radical papers had been suppressed by the government, the editorial added:
"But we want to warn the weather cock in the White House that it may not prove safe. Suppression of the voice of discontent leads to assassination. Vide Russia."

He asserted that the San Francisco preparedness parade bomb explosion was a part of the same plot.
Dr. D. E. Stafford, autopsy surgeon, and the state's first witness, will be re-called to the stand today at his own request to explain his testimony of yesterday. Gender cross-examination he said then that in his opinion—"the bomb exploded before it reached the sidewalk."
The defense contends that this opinion, if upheld, will prove the defense's case.

SEARCH ENDS IN DEATH

Fostoria—While searching for his glasses, George W. Church, 67, died from heart disease.

Washington, Jan. 19.—The name of a second woman of mystery may be dragged into the house note leak committee hearings.

Mrs. Ruth Thomson Visconti, the first mystery woman, is slated to be a witness before the probe Monday. At that time, with Sherman L. Whipple, noted Boston attorney, as counsel, the committee intends to go to the bottom of her reported story, naming a newspaperman and Secretary Tumulty.

In stripping the mystery from this woman, it is likely the committee will investigate her relations with a second woman even more mysterious than the first.

As the rumor goes, this second woman may know even more of the leak situation, and if the testimony shapes up in accordance with the rumors, the hearings will be more pungently spicy than at any time to date. Just how far Mrs. Visconti will go toward confirming Lavau's statement that she told him of an alleged note leak deal, is problematical. But there is no mistaking the gravity that many followers of the hearings attach to her testimony.

Majority members say Tumulty and the newspaperman will be cleared beyond shadow of doubt. But as the story goes, Mrs. Visconti knows so many newspapermen—and perhaps officials—that she may furnish a real flood of light on the leak situation.

Perkins Gives Progressives New Song

New York, Jan. 19.—George W. Perkins gave the progressives a new hymn today, which he used to characterize the new Progressive movement.

Asked what would be done if the Republican national committee is not called to make adjustments demanded by the Progressives, the former Bull Moose chairman said:
"I can only refer you to the old song we used to sing in our church choir—'Lead kindly light, one step enough for me.'"

AND THE HERO WAS LOUIS AZARCH

(Oak Hill Press)
Scene: West Third street, Portsmouth.
Clatter! Clatter! two horses bearing women riders are coming down street at a rapid pace.
Hiss! Isn't that a cry of distress!
It is. One of the maidens is far over on the side of her steed and is holding on by means of a death grapple on the horse's neck. Her saddle has turned and the horse is unmanageable. She is screaming every time the horse sets his feet down.

Flash! A man dashes out from the sidewalk, and, grasping the reins of the dying steed, brings him to a stop after being dragged about a half square.
Who is the man? None other than our Louis Azarch.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Albert B. Voorheis

Terminating a five months illness, death came to Mrs. Albert B. Voorheis, at 9:30 a. m. Friday, in her home in Avondale, Cincinnati. Mrs. Voorheis, before her marriage to Albert B. Voorheis in April, 1898, resided at 645 Fourth street. To this home, where 74 years ago, she was born, her remains will be brought tomorrow to receive a last sad farewell from the many friends of her early life.

Mrs. Voorheis, who was Mary M. Damarin, was a daughter of Charles A. M. Damarin and Harriet Offner Damarin, and spent all her life in Portsmouth until the time of her marriage.

Augustus M. Damarin, her one brother, and Mrs. Harriet H. Scudder, wife of George D. Scudder, her sister, survive. She also has many other relatives in the city. Three step-children, Mrs. Nellie Davis of New York City, Miss Kate Voorheis and Louis Voorheis of Cincinnati, who resided with the deceased, were with her when she passed away.

One month before the death of her husband, last September, Mrs. Voorheis was taken ill. She has been bedfast, due to heart trouble, almost every day since, and toward the end she was gradually sinking. Two hours before her passing word was telephoned to Mr. Scudder from her step-son, that there was no encouragement for her recovery.

A short service will be held at the Voorheis home in Cincinnati Friday evening. Next Monday afternoon at one o'clock services will be conducted by the Rev. M. S. Bush, of the First Presbyterian church, in the old Damarin home, Fourth and Washington streets, now occupied by Augustus M. Damarin and by Mr. and Mrs. Scudder.

Always interested in charitable and civic work of all kinds, Mrs.

Voorheis impressed her character on the community. She was for years an active worker in the Zula Mission in the First Ward. There she taught a Sabbath school class. She was a member of the Episcopal church while living in this city.

Mrs. Voorheis was a director of the Home For Aged Women of Portsmouth for a number of years, and after taking up her residence in Cincinnati, she was a member of the board of directors of a similar home in that city. She was a charter member of the Portsmouth Reading Club.

Many friends of Mrs. Voorheis who were interested in all Christian endeavors and works of charity testify to her faithfulness and untiring work, both in this city of her girlhood and in the city of her later life.

The time for the last service has been placed on Monday to allow time for out of town relatives to arrive. Mr. Scudder will go to Cincinnati to return with the body.

Stephen Stone

Adam Stone, proprietor of a second hand store, corner of Front and Market streets, is in Laurel, Ky., where he was called by the death of his father, Stephen Stone, on Monday. His store will be closed until his return. His father was buried at Harris, Ky.

Col. W. H. Knauss

Col. W. H. Knauss, aged seventy-seven years, who for years taught patriotism and tried to eradicate sectional feeling, died at his home in Columbus, Thursday, of Bright's disease. The deceased was a cousin of Frank V. Knauss, of this city.

Relative to Mr. Knauss' death the Columbus Ohio State Journal Friday said:

Colonel W. H. Knauss, aged 77, who for years sought to still the love of the flag in young and old, died yesterday from Bright's disease at his home, 358 Fifteenth

Salesman Missing Since December 30

In an effort to locate his brother-in-law, Edward Coble, well known traveling salesman, who was married here two years ago, Ed V. Leach, district manager of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company with headquarters in this city, will go to Elkins, W. Va., Saturday to institute a state-wide search for the missing man.

Coble, who resided with his wife and daughter, Gail, in Norristown, Pa., left Clarksburg, W. Va., December 30 for Grafton. On this day his wife received her last word from her husband, who complained of being ill.

Since then all efforts to locate Coble have been fruitless.

Mr. Leach Friday stated that it was his belief that Coble was mistaken for a dry detective in West Virginia and waylaid and killed. He will call up every police chief in the cities in West Virginia visited by his brother-in-law tomorrow and furnish a description of the missing man. Coble lived happily with his family and his firm always regarded him as one of their best salesmen. His accounts have been found absolutely straight. Coble's disappearance is enshrouded in mystery as just before leaving Clarksburg he wrote his wife to not dismantle his daughter's Christmas tree, as he wanted to see it again.

SUFFRAGE PROJECT TO BE LAUNCHED IN COMMITTEE HEARINGS NEXT WEEK

Columbus, O., Jan. 19.—Legislative leaders of both political faiths are planning to launch the suffrage project in committee hearings next week. Representative Hunter, Franklin county, chairman of the house committee on privileges and elections, plans a meeting of his committee next Tuesday. suffrage bill, is a member of the committee.

Totman said his committee will meet either Monday or Tuesday morning.

State Officials Favor Presidential Suffrage

Columbus, O., Jan. 19.—Secretary of State Fulton is for presidential suffrage. Here's why: Fulton said today he was for whatever his wife was for. Mrs. Fulton said:

"I'm a strong advocate for presidential suffrage and hope the women of Ohio are successful in their fight for recognition."

State Treasurer Bryan, also came out today for woman suffrage.

"It isn't consistent that women should be asked to pay taxes, but have no voice in levying them," Bryan said. "I'm for woman suffrage and hope the assembly will pass the bills already introduced."

In Serious Condition

Mabel Morris, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Morris, of 2354 Ninth street, who was burned Wednesday, is in a serious condition. As she was passing the grate the child's woolen dress caught fire. Her avenue. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon at the house, with burial in Green Lawn cemetery.

Robbers Escape With "Bait"

Toledo, O., Jan. 19.—Two hundred dollars furnished by Police Chief Henry J. Herbert as bait for members of an alleged gang of auto thieves said to have been operating at the Overland plant, is nesting in the pocket of one of the gang today.

Detectives waited outside a house while a "plant" was inside, trying to "buy" one of the stolen autos. Sensing the situation, the auto thieves hurried their customer out of the building and sped away in the auto while detectives looked on, helpless. A mile away, the thieves took the $200 from the "plant" and left him sitting in the auto. One of the alleged members of the gang was arrested on Thursday evening.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Collier, of Rhodes avenue, New Boston, a baby boy Friday morning. The happy "daddy" is employed with the Whitaker-Glessner Company.

Mrs. Sam Kinsey, of 1919 Seventeenth street, who has been ill three weeks with acute rheumatism, was reported better Friday. Mrs. Kinsey is unable to use her left arm, which is affected.

REVIVALS

The largest crowd of the week was present last night at the special services being held in the First Presbyterian church. The subject of Rev. Bush's discourse was: "On the Threshold of Heaven," and the text was taken from Mark 12:34, "Thou Art Not Far from the Kingdom of God."

Some extracts from the sermon:

"The young man to whom Jesus spoke these words had been listening to the Sadducees asking critical question of Jesus. He perceived at once that Christ was an expert on life problems. Being tired of the discussions of the Sadducees and Pharisees about feasts and holy days, he asks the supreme question: 'Which is the greatest commandment of all?'"

"Jesus in his answer insisted on the great Old and New Testament teachings, viz:

"First, the oneness and unity of God.

"Second, love toward God.

"Third, like unto the second and inseparable from it—love toward our fellowmen."

Tonight is the closing night of the week day services, and the subject will be "The Night of the Soul." This will also be a preparatory service for the communion.

Will Never Be Without This Simple Laxative

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin Relieved Her Baby When Nothing Else Would

Little Max Pendergrast is now four years old, and a fine healthy boy. When but a tiny baby, in fact almost from birth, he suffered a great deal from constipation. His mother, Mrs. Carl W. Pendergrast, Red Key, Ind., heard of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, obtained a bottle of it from the drug store, and with it was able to quickly correct this condition.

Mrs. Pendergrast says Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has saved them from calling the doctor many times, and that she will never be without a bottle of it in the house to use when needed. She found it equally effective as a laxative for herself and other members of the family.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, pleasant to the taste, mild in action and positive in effect. It does not gripe or strain, and contains no opiate or narcotic drug. It is the ideal family laxative, mild and pleasant for ion which will be celebrated on the coming Sunday morning. Special music tonight, the song service starting promptly at 7:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

MANLY CHURCH

The district superintendents of the Manly Men of Manly are grouping their members in the Department of Evangelism and placing them under group leaders. When this is completed the membership of the church, numbering more than eight hundred, will be organized and grouped in some forty units of efficiency. This movement is bearing abundant fruit already in personal evangelism. By next week the entire working force is expected to be engaged for the most aggressive evangelism ever conducted by this church.

With two more accepting Christ in last night's service and the spiritual interest becoming more intense, the people were loth to disperse even after dismissal. Earnest groups here and there lingered with but one theme. Such are always the earmarks of a genuine revival.

The sermon was on "Justification by Faith" and was based on Romans 5:1: "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ."

This is the central doctrine of the Word of God. The Bible is composed of sixty-six books, bound, not by the book-binder's art, but by the Divine solicitude for human souls that they may be saved from their sins and be as one with Him.

This doctrine involves:

1. That there is a Divine law of human action before which men are to be justified.
2. That we have not kept that law.
3. That we cannot justify ourselves.

"By the deeds of the law shall no flesh be justified." Justification is faith, and faith is that faculty of the soul which is easiest to be exercised.

Men will persist in trying to realize the favor of God by going at it the hard way. All heathenism is a vast, pathetic, age-long and world-wide spectacle of human beings, endeavoring by all sorts of self-torture to gain the favor of their gods.

The priests of Baal seek to placate the sun-god by gashing themselves 'till the altar reeks with human gore. The Penitentes of the Southwest strip themselves and lacerate themselves with the desert cacti from the same motive. The so-called holy men of India lie on beds of spikes, or hold aloft their hand and arm 'till they are rigid, and clench their hands 'till the finger-nails grow through the hands under the same sad delusion. Martin Luther is reported to have been following the same misguided and vain pursuit of soul-rest by climbing Pile's staircase and kissing the cold marble of each step, when God's Spirit shot into his darkened soul the illuminating truth, "The just shall live by faith." He stood to his feet and in arm 'till they are rigid, and clench their hands 'till the finger-nails grow through the hands under the

CALL PETE SMITH; CHICKEN THIEF SLAIN

"It's a fine old world," said a ferret belonging to Homer McGraw, Cedar street, New Boston, when he ran away yesterday and found himself in Jasper Culp's hen house on Spruce street. Eight chickens he killed while enjoying his exciting liberty. Then Clyde Cochran killed Mr. Ferret.

Old Officers Re-elected

Stockholders of The Anderson Bros. company met Thursday evening at the home of W. B. Anderson, of Rose Ridge, and held their annual election of officers, which preceded a delightful dinner.

Those elected were W. B. Anderson, president; C. N. Anderson, first vice president; R. W. Anderson, second vice president, and W. W. Anderson secretary and treasurer.

These officers with P. V. Davidson completes the board of directors. A. N. Horr and E. C. Hood, of this city, and W. H. Newcomb of Huntington, who are stockholders, were also present.

The firm recently closed one of its most successful years.

C. N. Anderson and W. H. Newcomb, of The Anderson-Newcomb Drygoods company, of Huntington, came down from that city Friday to attend the meeting.

WILL COST MORE TO BE SICK

At a regular meeting of the Jackson County Medical Society held at Jackson recently, it was decided to put a new schedule of prices into effect the first of February.

Goals To Infirmary.

Federal Grand Jury Calls Local Witnesses In The Election Probe

Cincinnati, Jan. 19.—The end of the federal vote inquiry, so far as Cincinnati is concerned, is in sight. This was made evident Friday morning when it was announced that the investigation would turn to affairs in Scioto county. Twenty-four subpoenas were served in Portsmouth and New Boston Thursday night. The jury will adjourn Friday over Sunday and it is said will not resume its deliberations until late this coming week.

Processes have been summoned to testify, have been completed. The last of these witnesses will testify probably today.

"That illegal voting in other counties embraced within the eastern division of the Southern Judicial District of Ohio will be investigated by the Cincinnati federal grand jury appears likely. It is known at least one other county is to be brought into the limelight of the present investigation before the grand jury adjourns finally.

"Yesterday the day was taken up in the examination of Cincinnati witnesses. A few of these were election officials, but the majority were doleful. Approximately 80 witnesses appeared yesterday morning, of which between 30 and 40 testified before the grand jury."

Tube Of Ether Explodes, Druggist Is Injured

Earl Fischbach of Coburn's drug store, New Boston, had his right hand seriously cut and left hand and face slightly cut about ten o'clock Friday morning when a glass tube containing concentrated nitrous ether exploded. It took three stitches to close the cuts. Small cuts were inflicted on his face and left hand. Dr. T. H. McCann dressed his injuries. Druggist Coburn had his hands protected when a tube exploded with him.

Rheumatism an Insidious Disease; Begins With Insignificant Pains

Real Torture Bound to Follow If the First Warnings Are Not Heeded.

Anyone afflicted with the pangs of rheumatism will tell you that the first pains were hardly noticeable. Slight at first, in fact too insignificant to be heeded, pains increasing very gradually, the disease had then firmly in its grasp before they realized that they were its victims.

Those who have been trying liniments and other external applications will find that they have not reached the cause of the trouble, and that their rheumatism is back with them again, increasing in severity as the days go by.

Don't overlook the first signs of rheumatism. Prompt treatment is highly important, but the right treatment is the only kind that will do you any good. Have you ever known of rheumatism being cured by liniments or other external applications? Most certainly not. Do not, therefore, make the mistake that many have, but bear in mind that external remedies positively cannot reach rheumatism. It cannot be rubbed out of the blood. S. S. S. can be relied upon to cleanse the blood and has been giving relief from rheumatism for more than fifty years, and some of the most severe cases have yielded to it. Write today and give full information about your case, and our medical adviser will give you advice without cost. Address medical department Swift Specific Co., 32 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

MARKET CONTINUES STRONG

Notwithstanding the adverse influence of four strong features buoyancy and strength characterized the steel and iron market for the past week. Congestion on the railroads gave accentuated trouble and one company, the Detroit Iron and Steel company, resorted to the expedient of buying fifty old freight cars and repairing them to use as they could be used in delivering pig iron in Detroit. An English firm was awarded a contract for making American shells, its bid being far below that of any home plant. The Pennsylvania railroad withdrew its inquiries on over two hundred thousand tons of rails and operations were somewhat restricted generally by a number of big plants having to shut down on account of gas shortage. On top of this some eastern furnaces had to bank on account of inability to obtain raw materials.

Perhaps, one reason why neither prices nor tone yielded perceptibly before these retarding conditions, was rather brisk offerings by other railroads and inquiries by shippers for 1918 delivery, braced by the fact that any shortage forced now by these abnormal conditions means nothing more than a guarantee for more activity in production when they are cleared away, as orders on hand still crowd and the demand for their filling becomes more imperative with demand for delivery and the new business that is bound to come forward.

THE WET AND DRY MOON

In a contemporary an animated controversy has been going on between the editor and one of his female contributors as to what is a dry moon and, conversely, what is a wet moon. The lady may have the last word in insisting the moon with the tips pointing up is the dry moon, but the editor has the better of the argument in maintaining that she is mistaken and the horns pointing down means a dry moon. It is a tradition, according to his assertion, that when the crescent of the pale goddess of the night turned up to the Indian could hang his horn on the lower point without it slipping off he promptly proceeded to hang up his horn and hug close to his wigwag, because he knew the weather was likely to be too stormy to range far off on the hunt. Then in addition to this long established and frequently demonstrated correct tradition, even the most ignorant must realize that a new moon with tips up is a wet moon, because it undoubtedly holds a vast amount of water, while a new moon which tips down is of course absolutely dry as it couldn't hold any moisture in that position, any more than a dipper held bottom-side up. More than this every month with gentle Luna holding up her hands, as it were to the highest heavens, it has stormed, rained, snowed or done something on an average of every other day and most every day.

While the editor apparently has the best of the argument, we must agree with his charming opponent, that he has invented the Indian tradition and his quotation of the recent nasty weather is but another case of the exception proving the rule. Ever since tradition was a part of the lore of man it has stood that the down-turned crescent was a wet moon and that's backed by common sense, for the moon could not spill out moisture if it were right-side up with care, or otherwise. The old smart alec of a newspaper man is simply playing up words and he knows the lady is not talking about the condition of the moon itself, but that which it is precipitating upon the earth.

Considering the depth of the snow the Billy Butt-In, Bill Cheatwood and the rest of the weather men are acting quite decently.

Some fellows never get enough, or rather they think others never get enough. Joe Carr is trying to organize another Ohio State base ball league.

The major league ball players are threatening to go out on a strike. That is what most of them have been doing for, lo, these many years, especially if they happened to belong to the Cincinnati Reds. But this is a different sort of a strike they say, so we hope it will not extend to the local Boy Scout League. Horrors! If it did where else out of town Si Straus and Jim Potts could go to do their rooting!

From the way the coating is peeling off of many houses, it looks as though this advocate of the beautiful and the good would have to inaugurate another paint-up campaign and as a side line, as it were, the use of a better quality of paint. Maybe though as the man that stops-us-on-the-street would say, there is something in the climatic conditions here peculiarly deleterious to paint.

Are we mere men never to have anything we can call all our own, except our exclusive wicked ways? Women's "overalls" have appeared and the worst thing woman, still God bless her, has appeared in them. They were offered to the trade, in New York, last week, and six hundred merchants laid in a stock, reporting a huge demand for them as soon as they were displayed in their windows.

The drys hail it as a choice blessing that the sale of liquors is going to be congressionally shut off in the District of Columbia, but will they promise other blessings to follow, the shortening of the sessions of congress, for instance.

THE "LIMIT"

The inception of the government parcel post system was heralded as the ruin of the express business. Parcel post, though a scant three years old, has grown to immense proportions that it proponents never dreamed of, yet there is at least one express company that is doing business at the old stand and quite profitably, judging from its dividends. It has a regular one of $3 on a share and thrown in an extra one of $33.33 for good measure.

Mayor Kaps says: "We didn't build the waterworks, but run it." No and yes in a way. A former Republican administration, casting gleefully aside a cherished Democratic plan, built the waterworks after its own ideas and another Republican administration has been chosen to run it, though neither building nor operation can be classed as a conspicuous success, though that isn't saying Mayor Kaps is to blame at all.

Some legislative fellow has offered a bill providing for a five-cent bounty on rats. Oh, rats!

Tom Lawson is telling 'em all right, but somehow the public does not seem inclined to take Tom either seriously or credulously.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY

O. O. MCINTYRE.

New York, Jan. 19.—The other free transportation under false pretenses. Six men have already been brought to New York from distant cities after confessing the crime was theirs. The other day another detective started to Weston, Va., for Otto Iffes, the latest admitter. An hour later it was found that he could not have committed the crime. He will now be forced to remain in Weston, however severe that may seem.

A subway pickpocket, who apparently has no future at all in his line, tried to get into the hip-pockets of a newspaper reporter who was on his way to Park Row the other morning. The scribe allowed the man to roam around through his pockets, and when he had finished slapping his wrists. A half hour later the same pickpocket was trying to pick the pockets of a magazine writer who lives in Washington Square and eats at Polly's.

A bright young cartoonist, well known in Newspaper Row, came to the office of his fellow cartoonists the other morning with his eyelids quivering like that of a man who had been casting dice long hours, and crying exhortations and supplications to the ivory cubes, such as: "Eventuate, O thou seven! For mine infant has dearth of a pair of new sandals." As Demosthenes would say, he was slightly jingled.

The young girl stenographer, very much interested in him, asked him what he had been doing. "Shooting dice all night long," he replied with a sigh.

A look of horror came over her face. "Shooting dice?" she gasped. "I think that is horrible. For, remember no matter how small and insignificant they may be, they know just as we do, and to shoot them is murder."

But the cartoonist was too tired to argue. If people do not stop confessing that they killed Policeman William McAuliffe, of New York, they are going to be arrested for obtaining

Spats
Spats are short, violent affairs indulged in by some human beings and most lovers.
They don't amount to much in either case, but they're awful while they last.

Spats usually reach from the ankles to the instep and from the front door to the gate.
They are worn just under the calf and over the protest of every right thinking person.
Some folks naturally have big feet. Others wear pink spats.
Baldness can't be helped and stuttering may be condoned, but spats are a man's own fault.

How Sermons are Changed

The city editor called his star

"And be sure to get pictures of struction.

An hour later the star reporter joined the city editor.

"Say, Jenks is of the class of old," he said.

"That cub! I wonder who put that over on him," said the city

Sentiment of the floor traders was bearish.

Mercantile Marine common touched 21 and the preferred crossed 65, the highest levels for those issues since the first days of the new year.

United States Steel moved forward more than a point to nearly 116, then receded a point or more. Bethlehem Steel again lost to financing and other rumors, selling as low as 40 in the second hour of the afternoon, the lowest price since 1915.

TRAIN STRIKES PHAETON, MAN AND WOMAN HURLED THIRTY FEET; NOT BADLY INJURED

Passenger train No. 1, C. & O., due at South Portsmouth at 8:49 a. m., Friday, in passing the Thirteenth street crossing in Ashland, Ky., this morning at 7:50 struck a phaeton occupied by Henry Donta, superintendent of the Boyd County Infirmary, and an inmate of that institution, Mrs. Leander Rhodes. They were hurled 30 feet by the force of the impact, but their bodies luckily cleared the tracks and they escaped with bruises and cuts about hands

"FAGGED-OUT" WOMEN Will Find a Helpful Suggestion In This Letter.

Overworked, run-down "fagged-out" women who feel as though they could hardly drag about, should profit by Mrs. Carter's experience. She says: "I am the mother of six children and I got so weak and run-down that I couldn't eat anything and it seemed almost impossible for me to get around and do my work. I tried different doctors' remedies without benefit. I saw Vinol advertised and decided to try it, and received so much benefit from the first bottle that I continued to take it, and it has built up my strength and made me strong and well. I consider Vinol the best medicine I have ever taken, and advise all weak, run-down women to try it." Mrs. Bessie Carter, State Road, N. C.

If all the tired, overworked, run-down women in Portsmouth could only realize how our delicious Vinol, which contains beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, supplies the vital elements necessary to build up blood and strength, we wouldn't be able to supply the demand.

ECZEMA FOR YEARS CUTICURA HEALS

On Head and Neck. Itched Terribly, Scratched and Became Sore Eruptions. Lost Rest At Night. Had to Have Hair Clipped.

"I suffered from eczema for a number of years and I tried many different remedies but with no effect. The trouble started with itching, then a rash broke out mostly on my head and on my neck. Itched terribly and caused so much scratching that it became sore eruptions and I lost a good deal of rest at night. I had to have my hair clipped tight to my head and the rest became very lifeless and dry."

"Then I read of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and was advised to try them so I sent for a free sample. I found the sample such a help that I got several boxes of Cuticura Soap and a box of the Ointment which I used until I was healed." (Signed) Miss Florence Clarke, Dodge Center, Minn., Oct. 7, 1916.

Many distressing Ailments experienced by them are Alleviated by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Here is Proof by Women who Know.

Lowell, Mass.—"For the last three years I have been troubled with the Change of Life and the bad feelings common at that time. I was in a very nervous condition, with headaches and pain, a good deal of the time so I was unfit to do my work. A friend asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did, and it has helped me in every way. I am not nearly so nervous, no headache or pain. I must say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best remedy any sick woman can take."—Mrs. MARGARET QUINN, Rear 359 Worthen St., Lowell, Mass.

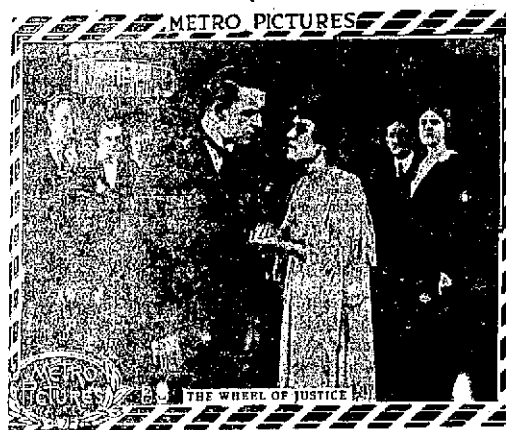

She Tells Her Friends to Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Remedies.

North Haven, Conn.—"When I was 45 I had the Change of Life which is a trouble all women have. At first it didn't bother me but after a while I got bearing down pains. I called in doctors who told me to try different things but they did not cure my pains. One day my husband came home and said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash?' Well, I got them and took about 10 bottles of Vegetable Compound and could feel myself regaining my health. I also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and it has done me a great deal of good. Any one coming to my house who suffers from female troubles or Change of Life, I tell them to take the Pinkham remedies. There are about 20 of us here who think the world of them."—Mrs. FLORENCE ISBELL, Box 197, North Haven, Conn.

The Movies

Five-Part Metro Production With Emily Stevens, Columbia Tonight

Emily Stevens, the famous stage and screen star, will be the feature attraction at the Columbia tonight in "The Wheel of Justice," a sensational five-part Metro production. The story has to do with justice of convictions obtained on circumstantial evidence alone by officials who have political aspirations, and who are often prompted by their ambition to be relentless in their prosecutions. Miss Stevens is surrounded by an exceptionally strong cast which includes the well known dramatic artist, Frank Mills, who is featured with the star, Roma Raymond, Edwin Holt, Harry Davenport, Raymond McKee, Jerome N. Wilson and Charles Eldridge.

Miss Stevens has been starred in several of the greatest features ever produced by Metro including "The House of Tears," "Destiny, or the Soul of a Woman," and "Corra." There are scores of big and gripping scenes in "The Wheel of Justice," including a realistic courtroom scene, an elaborate church wedding, a scene from "La Tosca," and glimpses behind the scenes in the life of a Broadway stage star. George D. Baker directed this masterly production.

Wallace Reid and Oles Ridgley in "The Yellow Pawn," Paramount Feature at the Lyric Tonight

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Tellegen, (Gerardine Farrar) during their engagements at the Lyric studio, sadly disrupted the brilliant co-starring duo, Cleo Ridgley and Wallace Reid, because those popular players alternately played opposite the other, and the announcement that the two stars will appear together in the Jesse L. Lasky production of "The Yellow Pawn," which will be the attraction at the Lyric tonight is the first one in several months.

Wallace Reid scored such a pronounced success as leading man for the famous diva in "Carmen" and "Maria Rosa," that when she returned to the west for her summer's engagement he was promptly cast to appear again as her leading man, while Miss Ridgley appeared as leading woman for Mr. Tellegen in "The Victory of Conscience" and "The Victoria Cross," and would have played the part of his leading woman in "The Black Wolf," but for the fact that the leading feminine role required a Spanish beauty entirely out of keeping with Miss Ridgley's wonderful blond halo. "The Yellow Pawn" is a modern society drama dealing with studio life in New York city.

At The Exhibit

Today is shown another of those thrilling Beatrice Fairfax detective dramas that are becoming more and more popular each week. Today's number is "Billy's Romance," showing how Miss Fairfax and her reporter friend investigate and run to earth crooks who have threatened Billy, who has had terrifying experiences in a love affair. A rival has employed thugs to do away with Billy. Beatrice Fairfax is the star, supported by Harry Fox and Grace Darlington. A Ford Animated Weekly, the animated newspaper in one reel, is followed by a Krazy Kat and a Bringing Up Father cartoon comic. An extra feature has been booked for Saturday.

At The Arcana

A Red Feather feature photoplay is the attraction at the Arcana today. It is a show worth all of ten cents, but it is being shown for the small price of five cents—half a dime. No better show can be found in the city at such a rate. Manager Potts always books the best for his patrons and he made a ten strike when he succeeded in booking the five act Red Feather drama, "The Manspring," which is being shown today. Featured in this photoplay is Ben Wilson, the wonderful Universal star. Supporting Mr. Wilson is Francis Bellington, another star. Don't miss this Friday bill.

Another Big Show At Temple Theatre Tonight

One of the greatest pictures ever shown in this city will be in offering at the Temple theatre tonight in a five reel production entitled "The Ocean Waif," featuring Clarence Blackwell, a popular favorite in this city. This is a real play, full of realism and teaches a high moral lesson. In addition to this stellar attraction, Manager Harold Potts will show a side splitting comic entitled "Honest To Goodness," a play full of frolic and fun. Do not forget the big matinee at the Temple on Saturday afternoon between the hours of 1 and 5 o'clock. Admission tonight 5c and 10c and worth twice as much. Come and see for yourself.

At The Strand

Tonight will be shown another seven reel program for five and ten cents. The Strand's six and seven reel bills are meeting with the approval of all and Manager Welch expects to keep up the high standard of programs shown for five and ten cents. Tonight's feature is "The Man In Black," another of the thrilling and sensational Fantomas detective pictures taken in the secret passages and room size sewers of Paris. You will have to see this to appreciate it. "Citizens All" is a three part American-Mutual drama which will be followed by "The Last Thrust," a screaming Beauty comedy.

In Sacramento

Fred Wilson, a well known lumber dealer of this city who has been in Vancouver for some time on business is now in Sacramento, Cal., of business. He is a cousin of Joe Bonzo of this city.

BEST LIVER AND BOWEL LAXATIVE FOR FAMILY USE

"Cascarets" Regulate Women, Men and Children Without Injury
Take When Bilious, Headachy, for Colds, Bad Breath, Sour Stomach

Instead of nasty, harsh pills, salts, castor oil or dangerous calomel, why don't you keep Cascarets handy in your home? Cascarets act on the liver and thirty feet of bowels so gently, you don't realize you have taken a cathartic but they act thoroughly, and can be depended upon when a good liver and bowel cleansing is necessary—they move the bile and poison from the bowels without griping and sweeten the stomach. You eat one or two at night like candy and you wake up feeling fine, the headache, biliousness, bad breath, coated tongue, sour stomach, constipation, or bad cold disappears. Mothers should give Cascarets, sick, feverish or bilious children a whole Cascaret or half a one—they are harmless and safe for the little folks.

SHOULD MAKE A MILLION FOR HIM

Cincinnati Man Discovers Drug That Loosens Corns so They Lift Out

Local druggists are having a tremendous call for freezone, the drug which is said to shrivel a corn, root and all, without any pain. A few drops applied directly upon a tender, aching corn, relieves the soreness at once, and shortly the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out with the fingers. This new drug is being dispensed at small cost in quarter-ounce bottles which is sufficient to take off every hard or soft corn from one's feet. It is a sticky substance which dries at once, and does not inflame or even irritate the surrounding tissue or skin. There is no excuse for anyone inviting death by infection or lock-jaw from cutting their corns now.

Thaw's Condition Still Unchanged

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 19.—The condition of Harry Kendall Thaw showed no change during the night, according to an announcement from St. Mary's hospital today. When Thaw awakened this morning, his head seemed clearer and he smiled at the sisters who visited his room, but he still is not even permitted to say so much as "good morning."

Frank K. Johnston, head of Thaw's force of lawyers, declared Mrs. Thaw will have no statement for publication until she is absolutely certain of her son's recovery. She had expected to make known her stand several days ago, but twice it was postponed.

Laura Mobley Appealed To Her Doctor

And He Said "Go Ahead And Try Nerv-Worth"—Results Wonderful

Here is a remarkable neighborhood statement: "About a year ago I commenced feeling badly and steadily grew worse. My nervous system seemed exhausted, felt tired all the time, was hardly able to do any work and had no appetite. I could sleep very little at night and suffered pain in my back, towards the left side. My doctor finally told me, after I had asked him if it would be all right, to go ahead and try Nerv-Worth, as my neighbors all wanted me to try it, several of them stating they had taken it with wonderful results. I got a bottle, commenced taking it, and began to feel better at once. I took two bottles and can truthfully say they made a new woman of me. ALL MY ACHES AND PAINS ARE GONE. I sleep fine, digestion good, and feel fine in every way, thanks to this wonderful remedy. I can not say too much in praise of it and will gladly recommend it to my friends." (Signed)

Why, How Do You Do, Miss Madaline! Who's She? The 1917 Baby Of Course

Presentation of Gifts To Lucky Child Will Take Place Next Friday.

(BY LOUISE GRISWOLD)

Joy to you, little 1917 girl. You are 10 days old and Times readers have not heard how you are growing since your happy advent just 12 minutes after the new year. Today, however, I learned your deep blue eyes are keeping all the blue of the skies they brought when you came and that you are as fine and healthy a little Miss as any one could want to cuddle. In a week you will have a party, and then because you are the first baby to come to Portsmouth in 1917, you will receive at least 61 gifts. Let me introduce little Madaline Georgia Fisher, to the people of our city. She makes her home at present with her parents, at 1412 Kinney street.

How do you think little Madaline Georgia Fisher got her name? No, she is not named after her two grandmothers, nor has she any cousins, uncles or aunts called by either of them. But she has a little five year old brother, whose name is Jack, and Jack-Boy has been wanting a little sister, for ever so long.

"When I got a little sister," he said over and over, "her name is going to be Madaline." He was asked what he would like to name a little brother, but declared he had no name for one. "I don't want one, I want a sister," he insisted.

The doctor who ushered the stork into the home of Mr. and

Mrs. Joseph Fisher on New Year's refused to make his sister's name, her second one, but instead called her Georgia, in his own honor. No one could be more proud or happy to have a little sister than Jackie Fisher, who runs to the gray-enameled baby carriage, every time his tiny sister cries, and pushes it back and forth. "She is getting very spoiled by her father and Jack-Boy," declared Madaline's mother. "When ever she cries, her father says if I don't pick her up, he will. She is very good though, and sleeps nearly all night without a whimper."

"Her father has plans for her clear up until she's a woman," said the mother when I called to see the 1917 baby this morning. "But I would rather not look far ahead." Her father wants her to play a musical instrument and to sing. He wants her to have a fine education.

When asked as to her ambitions for the daughter, Mrs. Fisher said "If she's as sweet when she grows up as she is now, I'll be satisfied."

Madaline's devoted knight, her brother, had to be forcibly separated from his small next-door neighbor, who recently claimed that his little sister was the prettiest. Neither had ever seen the other's sister but Jack insisted that though the baby next door might be the elder she could not be the prettiest. He loves to play with the girl baby, and his mother says she believes Madaline will never want for anything as long as Jack is here.

If any care to present gifts to this first 1917 baby, who have not already signified their intentions at the Times Office, they may yet do so. The presentation will be on January 26, when the gifts will be taken to the Fisher home in automobiles and moving pictures will be taken.

time shifted our course, hoping to slip away unseen in the darkness. But the two vessels had apparently sighted us, despite our lack of lights, and then gave proof of this by immediately putting on full speed and bearing down in our direction.

"I cranked my boilers and did my best to hurry away, but with our ten knots maximum speed, it was soon apparent from the way the two strangers overhauled us that it was useless to try to elude them. Both apparently were capable of at least 15 knots. Pretty soon they were close by. When they were almost alongside I gave the alarm and everybody aboard donned life-belts. We were certain then that the raiders, or raiders, we had been warned about were after us.

"After laying to, there came aboard us very shortly six German officers and twenty men. They took charge of my vessel, seized the cargo of coffee which we carried, and took off a considerable amount of food. Then they gave us time in which to gather and pack a few personal effects before putting us into boats. In the meantime the Germans had planted two explosive bombs on each side of my ship.

When we were all off, including the Germans, these were exploded. The vessel sank at 2:45 a. m. on January 8. "Look 'Em Over" Of Sinking

"A prisoner aboard one of our captors, I saw two other vessels sunk on January 9 and one on January 10—all three being destroyed in exactly the same fashion. Whenever the sinkings took place during the daylight hours a German cinema man aboard the raider calmly and methodically cranked away, taking pictures of the sinking.

"I was told by the captain of the two vessels that he had orders to spare all passengers and all vessels carrying big cargoes. "We were kept in the port bow compartment of the vessel to which we were transferred. The quarters were almost without air and for five days we were compelled to live and sleep in this cramped, stuffy fashion, sleeping with flindoes and other rough-necks. Then we met the Japanese steamer Hudson Maru and all on our ship were transferred to that vessel, except Coolies.

"The Hudson Maru was dispatched to Pernambuco with barely enough water and sea biscuits to complete the voyage."

The preceding sections of the log had detailed how the Radnorshire left Bahia on January 5 and asserted the spot at which she sighted the raiders was 100 miles east of Pernambuco.

PERKINS

(Continued From Page One) have to offer and then we will decide what will be done," he said. "I want it distinctly understood," Perkins continued, "that this fight is not against the rank and file of the Republican voters, but against that element of control which has been unwilling to allow the Progressive independent voters to have a voice in the better policies in the Republican party."

Perkins was jubilant over telegrams received, supporting his attack on the old guard.

One message from Charles Sumner, D. of Massachusetts, read: "Tell the Republican national committee to go to the devil. Let them alone and they will hang themselves." Other messages in similar tone, he announced, were received today from I. R. Kirk-

"Drys" Want Sunday, Bryan and Roosevelt To Campaign In Ohio

Columbus, O., Jan. 19.—With dry leaders satisfied that they "have formed the solidist battle front ever presented in an engagement with liquor interests of Ohio," nearly 2,000 delegates who remained through the closing sessions of the state dry convention left for their homes today.

"It's the first time anti-liquor forces of Ohio were ever so united with so little friction and so much harmony in the ranks," said Wayne B. Wheeler, Anti-Saloon League counsel today.

Superintendent White of the Ohio Anti-Saloon League announced the executive committee representing all organizations interested in the campaign for the state-wide prohibition amendment will begin forming its plans at once and county chairmen will be put to work immediately organizing for the coming campaign. Delegates cheered lustily when Superintendent White told them at the closing session he hopes to see drys of Ohio sending out three trains before next fall's election—one bearing Theodore Roosevelt in one section of the state, one bearing William Jennings Bryan in another section, and the third carrying Billy Sunday through the middle of the state.

Whitman "Sides In" With Perkins

New York, Jan. 19.—George W. Perkins arrived here today from Albany glowing with enthusiasm over the fact that Governor Whitman came out flatly in support of his fight against the Republican national committee. Whitman declared he was with Perkins in the fight "to the last ditch."

The more skeptical suggested that an agreement is underway for Perkins to support Governor Whitman for president in 1920 in case Colonel Roosevelt should fail to hover the various elements under his wing. This was denied by Perkins. He said Whitman would not even be asked to line up exclusively with either faction.

Border dispatches today transmitting rumors that the guardsmen would be ordered home within five days were heard by war department officials without comment.

Say Methods Strictly Legal

New York, Jan. 19.—Answering the charge of the Associated Press that International News Service agents have been guilty of pilfering war despatches since their expulsion from French and English territory, officials of William R. Hearst's International News Service yesterday submitted affidavits to Judge Hand in the United States District Court in which they declared their news gathering methods were strictly legal.

The affidavits deny that the International News Service has stooped to bribery or has stolen tips from the Associated Press wires, as it is alleged in the complaint. It is admitted, however, that certain stories were obtained from the bulletins and early editions of papers supplied by the Associated Press. This, Samuel Undermyer, chief counsel for the Hearst concern, told the court is necessary occasionally and is legitimate business for any news agency.

Officials To Honor Dewey

Washington, D. C., Jan. 19.—While hoarse-throated guns from coast to coast, boom out in salute, the body of Admiral George Dewey, late ranking officer of the navies of the world, will leave the capital at noon tomorrow on the last trip to its final resting place.

Official ceremonies over the body of the dead admiral in the rotunda of the capitol will be held at 11 o'clock, before what will probably be the most distinguished assemblage in recent years.

President Wilson and his cabinet, the entire diplomatic corps, the chief justice and associate justices of the supreme court, members of congress and high naval and army officers will attend. Admission will be by card only.

While the body reposes in solemn state on the same catafalque which bore the remains of the three martyred presidents, last rites will be conducted by Chaplain J. B. Prazier, U. S. N., chaplain of Dewey's flagship, the Olympia, in the battle of Manila Bay.

Vermont. Dewey's home state, will be represented by Governor Graham, Adjutant General Tillotson, a committee of the state legislature and the Vermont delegation.

Careless Use of Soap Spoils the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is just ordinary milled coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use. One or two teaspoonsful will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage. You can get milled coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

Roy and Carl Wolfe, of the Damarin building are ill with this grip.

OUTGREW HER STRENGTH

A fine, tall daughter, the pride of her parents, may have grown too fast. If with her height, she is calm, even-tempered, rosy, with bright eyes and a springing footstep, you have nothing to fear for your girl. But this rapid growth is sometimes gained at the expense of her strength. Wayward temper, a color that comes and goes, and a heart that beats fast and painfully. These mean anemia, and an anemic girl will never make a healthy blooming woman. She is bloodless. Let her have Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Soon a better appetite, bright eyes, calm temper and fresher color in her cheeks will tell you she is making new blood. Then all will be well. "Building Up the Blood" is a useful booklet that will be sent free on request by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Price 50 cents.

Dr. Horst Is Ill

The Ironton Register said last evening: "Dr. George P. Horst, D. D., pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of Portsmouth, who has been preaching in the First Presbyterian church of this city this week has had to give up the meetings for the rest of the week on account of a constantly increasing cold that settled on him last Sunday. Dr. Horst left for his Portsmouth home this afternoon where he will put himself under the care of his physician. "The many friends he has made while in the city will wish him a speedy recovery. "The meetings will be continued tonight and Friday night according to schedule, Rev. Townsend speaking each night."

Wanted—Girls 18 years of age or over, steady employment and good wages; apply from 11:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. or 4 to 6 p. m. 1017 Gallia street or address Box 1008.

Jr. O. U. A. M. Has Meeting

Five applications were received at the Jr. O. U. A. M. meeting Thursday. One candidate, Samuel Francis, was obligated. A report on the social given Tuesday evening will be made next Thursday evening when several new members will be initiated.

Mrs. E. K. S. Clakenbush, of 712 Washington street, continues to recover slowly from injuries she suffered in a fall several days ago.

THEATRICAL

Sun Theatre—Large Audience Witnesses Great Comedy "Clouds and Sunshine" presented at the Sun theatre last night by the Kitty Kirk company proved to be a great play, and one of the best comedies seen here in many days. An appreciative audience sat and laughed until their sides ached, intermingled with the comedy portion of the play is an intense heart story. The scenes of the play are laid in a small village, the plot of the piece is the persecution of a charming school "marm" by the village gossips and who in turn is protected by the village parson. Imagine the "gossips" when they get started.

Miss Kirk as the school teacher was decidedly charming and sweet and no better portrayal of such a character was ever seen here before. "Larry" Sullivan as the "chore boy" was a scream. Some boy that "Larry," "Clouds and Sunshine" will be repeated again tonight and tomorrow matinee and night. If you really enjoy a good laugh don't miss it. Special matinee tomorrow for ladies and children.

Up River Lads Play Here Saturday Night

Saturday evening in the high school gym the most important local game of the high school basketball schedule will be fought between P. H. S. and Huntington high schools' heavy and fast quintet. It will start at eight o'clock.

The locals have been practicing hard for this game as next to Ironton Huntington is Portsmouth's most hated rival in all fields of sport.

Several afternoon games were given over to the practice of signals and team work. Coach Trout deciding that these points will have to be worked cleverly if the locals are to turn in a victory. All the locals are passing the ball nicely and each knows his signals like a book.

In 1915 P. H. S. won a game and lost a game with Huntington. In 1916 the same story was repeated. P. H. S. winning by a score of 45 to 25 and losing by the close score of 21 to 20.

So far P. H. S. and H. I. S. are tied for basketball honors. Captain Baesman will have his regular lineup on the floor when the whistle sounds. Edwards, Mathews and Wilson will be forwards with Shoemaker, Shumway and Wells guards and Baesman center.

The biggest basketball crowd in the high school is looked for as every one of the 300 members of the Athletic Association have promised to be on hand. Don't forget the game of the year is on tomorrow night.

DARCY IS NO CHEAP PUG, NO INDEEDY

New York, Jan. 19.—Tom O'Rourke put more or less of a finger into the pugilistic pie yesterday by signing both Jack Dillon, light heavyweight champion, and Middleweight Champ Al McCoy to meet Les Darcy, providing O'Rourke can obtain the signature of the wonder boy of Madison.

O'Rourke will guarantee Dillon $15,000 if Darcy will face him, and he will hand over $10,000 to McCoy should Darcy sign to fight him for the middleweight championship of the world.

O'Rourke did not say what he would pay Darcy but it is understood he has offered the Australian $20,000 in either case.

Columbus, Jan. 19.—According to a report from Omaha, home of the Western league champions, there has been closed a deal with Columbus that gives Magistrate Rourke full control of a battery.

Pitcher Marly O'Toole and Catcher Larry Pratt. Each of the players involved were Senators at the last training camp.

O'Toole put in most of the year with Omaha under an optional agreement, but Pratt was with the Columbus club during the entire season.

Cleveland, Jan. 19.—Tennis jumped ahead here today following arrangements made to incorporate Cleveland's thirteen clubs into a central body to promote tournaments and good fellowship.

All that stands between Darcy and the laurels are Mike, Dillon and Levisky. And all that prevents us from being wealthy is the money.

Rebels vs. Bald Eagles.
Spiders vs. Cornshuckers.

By taking three in a row from the leaderless Cloud Hoppers at the Play House alleys, last night, the Cement Specialists pulled themselves to a tie for second place in the Masonic league race, right alongside the Ironclads and Giants.

The games rolled by the Specialists would not win them any high honors in a Pre-War tournament, but as the players explained they did not have to show their best punches, because they knew they had their opponents bested before the games started. George Freund, captain of the Specialists, was high man so far as individual scores are concerned. The good natured druggist and ice cream manufacturer hit the wood for 181 in his middle game. Ed Leach shot 177 for the Cloud Hoppers, and then subsided to 139, but came like a race horse in his last game and hung up a score of 179.

The improvement shown by McCoy forces Captain Jackson of the Cloud Hoppers to believe the wholesale grocer is a very man is yet destined to knock several spots off the bowling moon. Dan Lloyd of the Specialists showed considerable improvement. The scores:

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 60.

Tuesday nights. I think he has another girl that he goes to see on Wednesday nights. What do you think about it?

MISS BLUE EYES.
Why don't you have some of your friends call on you Wednesday and Sunday nights. That is the only way you can get even with him. However, you are both too young to keep steady company.

Dear Dolly.—I am in the notion of getting married. I am paying my respects to two different women. One of them has a red head and the other has large feet. Now the old saying is "a red head for a bad temper and big feet for a slow mover. Now which should I marry? I am not an old man, neither am I in my teens. Please answer at once, as I am in a hurry.

TIMES READER.
You will have to pay more than "your respects" when you get married, so be sure you are earning enough to pay your debts too. If you can't decide any other way why not draw straws or flip a coin. Shoes are pretty expensive now, so it might be a good idea to take the strawberry blonde.

Dear Miss Wise.—Will the opera "Chin Chin" give any matinee performances during their engagement at the Hartman theatre in Columbus next week? If so, on what days? Can a person go up and back the same day and see the show? Also give price of show.

GRAND OPERA.
The management announces there will be but two matinees, the first on Wednesday and the second on Saturday afternoon. One can go up on the morning train and come back on the one arriving here at midnight. Seats for the night performances are 50 cents, $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00.

Dear Miss Wise.—If after waiting 8 months for a reply to a letter, one came scoring me for my silence, should they take offense thinking I doubted their word when I explained that I had written the last letter and had not received theirs; adding if, as you say you wrote, then I can answer at once, as I am in a hurry.

A READER.
After a lapse of eight months one can't remember who wrote the last letter, and neither one should take offense, unless there was something else besides the letter to "ruin" their temper. Why don't you just answer it and not pay any attention to what they said, if it's worth answering, and you want to keep up the correspondence. Otherwise I'd forget the letter and the writer, too.

Dear Dolly.—I am a girl of thirteen. I have long, curly black hair. Could you please tell me how to fix it different than I do. I wear my hair with eight curls and the first front two caught back by a ribbon. Do you think there is any harm coming or walking with a boy? And don't you think I am old enough to go down town on an evening by myself? And also how to fix my hair by myself? PEGGY.
I can't imagine a prettier way to fix your hair than the way you now wear it. There is no harm in coming, only it's rather dangerous at times, because there are always a few rowdies at nearly every good looking place, who make it dangerous and unpleasant for others. If you are well chaperoned it would be all right to go for awhile after school. You are too young to be out after night alone or with someone else unless it's absolutely necessary to be out. Grow people are afraid to go out alone after night. Your writing is good. There is only one "4" in writing.

SOCIETY

The beautiful tea given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Harry S. Grimes and Mrs. Harry E. Taylor, at their handsome home on Second street was exquisitely appointed in every detail, it being one of the prettiest parties given in this city in many seasons. The spacious rooms were most attractive with Southern smiles, American Beauty roses and candles artistically arranged about the rooms. The Southern smiles adorned the mantles, over the doors and windows and around the borders of the rooms. The window-shades were drawn and the electric bulbs were shaded with scarlet shades, the color tone being in the scarlet color, very appropriate at this season of the year. From half-after two until half-after five o'clock Mrs. Grimes, Mrs. William Woodrow, of Chillicothe, and Mrs. Taylor received in the large front parlor, several hundred guests calling during the receiving hours. Mrs. Grimes wore a handsome gown of black lace, built over silver cloth; Mrs. Woodrow was attired in a beautiful gown of American beauty panne velvet, ombred in silver, the peticot of lace being made in the short length and the long train was of American beauty velvet; Mrs. Taylor wore an elegant gown of black velvet, and all carried arm-bouquets of long-stemmed American beauty roses. Assisting in entertaining the guests were Mrs. Samuel M. Johnson, Mrs. John D. Bridges, Mrs. E. Ainger Powell, Mrs. John G. Dillon, Miss Rozella Grimes, Mrs. W. H. H. Cadot and Mrs. James Patterson. During the early hours Mrs. Raymond D. York and Mrs. William Bridges invited the guests to the dining-room, which presented a beautiful picture, as of fairland. The electric lights and bulbs about the walls were shaded in scarlet shades, and the cut-glass bowls on the buffet held scarlet shaded bulbs. The handsome table, with exquisite lace doilies, had a flat center-piece of gorgeous American beauty roses and ferns. During the early hours Mrs. Alan N. Jordan and Mrs. E. D. Sterens presided at the coffee urn, while the delicious refreshments in the scarlet color were served by Mrs. George Mytinger, Mrs. Paul Esselborn, Miss Ruth Thompson and Miss Emma Johnson. Mrs. John A. Grimes and Mrs. George M. Taylor were in charge of the dining-room. The ice cream was frozen in apple shapes, the core being of delicious fruits. The cakes and bonbons were also in the scarlet colors. Miss Helen Dunn and Miss Marie Bauer carried the large silver tray of corsage bouquets, which they pinned on each of the guests as they were served. Mrs. Milton H. Longfellow and Mrs. Frank Adams invited the guests to the dining-room during the last hour. Mrs. R. O. LeBaron and Mrs. Guy V. Thompson pouring the coffee, while Mrs. Robert S. Kyle, Mrs. Russell Anderson and Mrs. Charlie Nichols served the dainties, assisted by Little Miss Nancy Grimes, who served nuts and candies. Miss Nell Turley and Miss Augusta Hal deman pinned the favors. Little Miss Pauline Grimes, attractive little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Grimes, was also a sweet little assistant at the party. All of the assistants wore lovely evening gowns, adding much to the beauty of the party. Among the large number of guests were: Miss Anna Lathrop, of Syracuse, N. Y., guest of Mrs. Lena Kline Reed; Mrs. Charles Blackmore, of Roanoke, Va., guest of Mrs. W. D. Trumper; Mrs. J. B. Mackay and Miss Mabel Mackay, of Wheelersburg; Mrs. Frank Davis, of New York, guest of Mrs. W. G. Williams; Miss Aveline Edgington, of Memphis, Tenn., guest of Mrs. A. S. Duda; Mrs. Nathan Booth, of Alexandria, Ind., guest of Mrs. Henry Heer.

The Masterpiece orchestra rendered beautiful music in the hall-way.

It was a great disappointment that Mrs. S. P. Fetter could not be present at the party, she being kept away by the death of her father-in-law.

The beautiful roses used at the tea were sent to several friends and relatives, who are ill.

GIRLS! LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR

25 cent bottle of "Danderine" makes hair thick, glossy and wavy.

Removes all dandruff, stops itching scalp and falling hair.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you can not find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson III.—First Quarter, For Jan. 21, 1917.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, John 1, 35-51. Memory Verses, 36-37—Golden Text, John 1, 43—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

One of the wonderful and most interesting things in this first chapter of John is the many different names of the Lord Jesus. In this respect it is somewhat like Rev. 1. He is called the Word of God, the Word made flesh, the Son of God, the Messiah, the King of Israel, and each one bears a different revelation of Him to our souls. Let our hearts cry ever be, "That I may know Him!" until we can say from the heart, "Yea, He is altogether lovely; this is my Beloved and this is my friend." (Phil. III, 10; Song v, 13). When we are fully occupied with Him all else will seem distant. As John cried the next day, "Behold the Lamb of God!" two of John's disciples followed Jesus, and when He turned and said, "What seek ye?" they replied, "Where dwellest thou?" To which He answered, "Come and see!" This led to a very many hours with Him, for it was about the tenth hour (verses 35-39), which was not as in the margin, two hours before night, but as we count time, 10 a. m.

It is easily proved by John xix, 14, where, at the sixth hour, which must have been 6 a. m., Jesus was still before Pilate, that John uses Roman time, and Luke uses Jewish time, counting from 0 a. m. (Roman time) as the beginning of the day, so with them the third hour would be our 9 a. m., the sixth hour our 12 noon, and so on. Jesus was crucified at the third hour Jewish time, or 9 a. m. Roman time, and our time. The darkness began at the sixth hour and continued till the ninth (Jewish time) or noon (3 p. m. our time, when He died (Mark xvi, 25, 33; Matt. xxvii, 45, 46; Luke xxiii, 44). He met the women at the well at 6 a. m. or 8 p. m. (John iv, 6), not at noon. Just remember that John counts the hours of the day as we do. What our Lord talked about in this interview we may imagine from the previous chapter (Luke xxiv), where we read of His conversation on the way to Emmaus, and in the upper room that same evening. We know that one of the two men on this occasion was Andrew, and we may safely conclude that the other was John himself (verses 40-42), for the evangelists have a way of not mentioning their own names when they are specially in the event.

We may also easily imagine that John found his brother James as quickly as Andrew found Simon. Are we as eager to bring others to Him, and does our talk about Him lead others away from ourselves to Him, as John's "Behold the Lamb of God!" did? Is our motto "He must increase, but I must decrease?" (John iii, 30). The next day Jesus went Himself to find Philip of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter, and said to him, "Follow me." I cannot tell you why He sought Philip and went Himself to do it, but I am glad that He ever sought me, though I fear that He has occasion to say to me, as He did to Philip after those three years, "I have been so long with you, and yet have thou not known Me?" (John xiv, 9). We all seem to become acquainted with Him so slowly. Oh, how patient He is with us. His "Follow Me" to Philip (verses 43, 44) makes us think of His resurrection from Peter in chapter xxi, 19, 22, and the application to us is so helpful.

Philip soon found a friend, saying to him, "We have found Him of whom Moses in the law and the prophets did write." With a disabused word concerning Nazareth Nathaniel was persuaded to come and see for himself, and soon he was heard exclaiming, "Rabbi, Thou art the Son of God; Thou art the King of Israel!" (verses 45-49). Perhaps the word of Jesus, "Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee," had something to do with his confession. Only He who knoweth our down-sitting and uprising and all our ways could say such things to any one (Ps. cxxxix, 1-4). It will help us greatly if we remember that we have to do with Him who knows us so thoroughly and to whom all things are naked and open. Our Lord's next word to Nathaniel, "Thou shalt see greater things than these," I have often taken to myself as I have seen many of the wonderful things He has wrought for us and through us, and then have I pleaded again His words in Jer. xxxiii, 3.

The last verse in our lesson, which is an evident reference to Jacob's dream and vision at Bethel (Gen. xxviii, 12), makes me think that perhaps under that fig tree Nathaniel had been meditating upon this very thing. Why should our Lord refer to it? If my supposition is right, it is a confirmation of Ezek. xl, 5, "I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them." Only in this gospel is this man mentioned by this name, but he is supposed to be the Bartholomew of the other gospels, as he is always mentioned as such with Philip (Matt. x, 3; Mark ix, 18; Luke vi, 14). The last mention of him is in John xxi, 2, where he is seen as one of the seven.

The gas supply both from a domestic and industrial standpoint is normal again in Portsmouth.

Have you heard any better news than this lately? Of course you haven't and there will be rejoicing all round especially among the manufacturers, who depended exclusively on gas for fuel.

Announcement was made last night by Supt. John McMillan of the local gas company that the industrial supply of gas, which had been cut off for more than a week had again become normal and various plants using it were immediately notified.

Nowhere was the news received with more genuine pleasure than it was in the plant of the Whitaker-Glessner Company, whose plant with the exception of four open hearth furnaces, which were operated by crude oil, have been idle for over a week.

Closely on the heels of the announcement that the gas supply had become normal came the information from the offices of the Whitaker-Glessner company that the blooming mill in their plant had already resumed operations this morning; also the 18-inch bar mill and three additional open hearth furnaces, making seven furnaces now in operation. The sheet mills will resume some time Sunday night, it was stated at the steel plant this morning. The domestic gas pressure has been normal right along in the city.

EVERYBODY BUSY; ARRESTS ARE FEW

Since Monday there has been but one arrest by the police and but one arrest by the county authorities. The reason for this unusual condition, is the topic of considerable speculation among those who are in touch with the situation.

One reason assigned for the abnormal conditions, is that during cold weather especially when the snow is so deep, that most of those who are frequent violators of the city ordinances, are busy, for the first time during the year perhaps, earning money by shoveling snow from walks.

The advocates of the foregoing theory claim that after the snow begins to melt, that this class of men will cause the police department

TASKS ARE NOT DRUDGERY NOW

Household Work Holds No Terror For Woman Tanlae Helped.

The average woman finds as much, if not more, joy in her daily household tasks as men-folk do in their work.

But to some household work is a drudgery, an unpleasant duty which has to be performed, according to Mrs. Ida M. Hamilton, 1924 Sloan avenue, Cleveland.

Just how Mrs. Hamilton lost her interest in her daily tasks and then regained it with the aid of Tanlae is best told in her own words:

"For six years I had suffered almost every form of misery from my stomach. Gas often formed, followed by a burning feeling in my throat. I was worried by dizzy spells and I seemed to be always tired. 'No matter how long I slept at night, I couldn't get the proper rest. In the morning I didn't feel like getting up; my work as I should have."

"At times my heart fluttered until I thought it was going to jump out. I was nervous. Sometimes I felt as if I wanted to scream right out loud. 'A lot of people recommended Tanlae to me so I decided at last to try it. I certainly am glad I did, too, because almost from the first I began to feel different. That first feeling left me after a week or so. My appetite has come back again. 'I go about my work now as I think every woman should—and I feel that Tanlae has been of great help to me.' Sold in Portsmouth, Ohio, by Fisher and Streich Pharmacy. Tanlae may be obtained in the following nearby towns: New Boston, E. H. Coburn, Seioville, Sciotoville Pharmacy; Bloomington, Swith, H. J. Gleim; Scioto, Stockham & Payne; McDermott, O. H. Thompson; Lucasville, Dr. J. H. Cox; Stockdale, O. E. Emory & Co.; Jasper, J. W. Dewey; Picketon, R. B. ## COMPETITION FLOUR

From all indications flour is going to go clean out of sight in price. General opinion is that flour will go to fourteen dollars per barrel. Many grocers are now asking $1.50 per sack or $12.00 per barrel for just ordinary flour. We received another fresh car of Competition direct from the mill, so if you want to lay in a supply this will insure you new fresh flour. Flour is very sensitive to taste. It will attract the taste of other things if stored around grocery stores for weeks and many stores keep it for months. We keep our flour in a special rat and mouse proof room especially built for flour; this insures you clean flour. We have not yet raised our price; we are selling flour cheaper retail than it can be bought in car load lots. This may be out last sale at this price, per sack, $1.30; per barrel $10.25

RAIDER STILL ACTIVE, REPORT

GERMANS TAKE MOVING PICTURES AS STEAMERS SINK

(Copyright 1917 by the United Press)

Buenos Aires, Jan. 19.—The German raider is still at large, and if reports from Rio de Janeiro today are correct, has increased her score of merchant ship victims by six. By this time she may not be alone in her depredations—it being accepted here that she has transformed one or more of her prizes into raiders like herself.

In the meantime, the greatest sea hunt in history is on in the South Atlantic. Allied warships are concentrating to sweep the most dangerous menace to allied shipping that has yet sailed the high seas into a corner and destroy her.

Amazement at the raider's audacity grew here today. From the log of the British steamship Radnorshire, one of the victims, it was learned that the German calmly took moving pictures of her destruction of various ships.

The belief grew here today that the raider is the Moewe, of previous notoriety. This indication came after additional questioning of survivors landed at Pernambuco. The British dispatches stating that the British steamer Yarowdale had arrived at St. Vincent, Tuesday, with the crews of eight victims of the raider aboard, also quoted those survivors as to this identification.

The Rio report as to six additional ships sunk by the German was unconfirmed. It did not list the ship over whose fate there was anxiety, and it may be that this list of six is merely a recapitulation of the number of allied vessels which recently left South American ports, or which were due to arrive, and about which there has been no information for some time. On the other hand, it is pointed out here that the original raider by this time has undoubtedly arrived and transformed one of the more speedy vessels among her prizes into additional raiders and that additions to the toll of destruction could be expected.

Captain Tells Of Raiders Methods
The most graphic story of the raider's method of destruction was told in the log of the captain of the British steamer Radnorshire, brought aboard with the survivors aboard the Hudson Maru at Pernambuco.

"At 10:30, on the night of January 17, following our departure from Pernambuco, we sighted a vessel ahead," the log related. "At that time we were traveling without lights having received warning to watch out for possible raiders—and as soon as we sighted the stranger, we changed our course. Then we saw two strangers—and a second time shifted our course, hoping to slip away unseen in the darkness. But the two vessels had apparently sighted us, despite our lack of lights, and then gave proof of this by immediately putting on full speed and heading down in our direction.

"I cranked my boilers and did my best to hurry away, but with our ten knots maximum speed, it was soon apparent from the way the two strangers overhauled us that it was useless to try to elude them. Both apparently were capable of at least 20 knots. Pretty soon they were close by. When they were almost alongside I gave the alarm and everybody aboard donned life-belts. We were certain then that the raider or raiders, we had been warned about were after us.

"After having to, there came a very short time six German raiders and twenty men. They took charge of my vessel, seized the cargo of coffee which we carried, and took off a considerable amount of food. Then they gave us time in which to gather and pack a few personal effects before putting us into boats. In the meantime the Germans had planted two explosive bombs on each side of my ship.

When we were all off, including the Germans, these were exploded. The vessel sank at 2:45 a. m. on January 8.

"Took 'Movies' Of Sinking"
"A prisoner aboard one of our captors, I saw two other vessels sunk on January 9 and one on January 10—all three being destroyed in exactly the same fashion. Whenever the sinkings took place during the daylight hours a German cinema man aboard the raider calmly and methodically cranked away, taking pictures of the sinking.

"I was told by the captain of the two vessels that he had orders to spare all passengers and all vessels carrying big cargoes.

"We were kept in the port bow compartment of the vessel to which we were transferred. The quarters were almost without air and for five days we were compelled to live and sleep in this cramped, stuffy fashion, sleeping with Hunkos and other rough-necks. Then we met the Japanese steamer Hudson Maru and all on our ship were transferred to that vessel, except Coolies.

"The Hudson Maru was dispatched to Pernambuco with barely enough water, and sea biscuits to complete the voyage."

The preceding sections of the log had detailed how the Radnorshire left Bahia on January 5 and asserted the spot at which she sighted the raiders was 900 miles east of Pernambuco.

NAME OF SECOND WOMAN MAY BE DRAGGED INTO HOUSE LEAK PROBE

Washington, Jan. 19.—The name of a second woman of mystery may be dragged into the house note leak committee hearings.

Mrs. Ruth Thomason Visconti, the first mystery woman, is slated to be a witness before the probers Monday. At that time, with Sherman L. Whipple, noted Boston attorney, as counsel, the committee intends to go to the bottom of her reported story, naming a newspaperman and Secretary Tumulty.

In stripping the mystery from this woman, it is likely the committee will investigate her relations with a second woman even more mysterious than the first.

As the raider goes, this second woman may know even more of the leak situation, and if the testimony shoves up in accordance with the rumors, the hearings will be more pungently spicy than at any time to date. Just how far Mrs. Visconti will go toward confirming Lawton's statement that she told him of an alleged note leak deal, is problematical. But there is no mistaking the gravity that many followers of the hearings attach to her testimony.

Majority members say Tumulty and the newspaperman will be cleared beyond shadow of doubt. But as the story goes, Mrs. Visconti knows so many newspapermen and perhaps officials—that she may furnish a real flood of light on the leak situation.

Attorney Whipple was booked to consult with committee members today. While he had not formally accepted the position of counsel, there was no doubt that his visit meant acceptance and that he would at once set to work studying the line of attack.

Next week, too, the committee plans to have the biggest of the nation's financiers as witnesses, although the sessions may adjourn to New York, it is still undecided.

SEARCH ENDS IN DEATH
Fostoria—While searching for his glasses, George W. Church, 67, died from heart disease.

GOVERNMENT GOING AHEAD WITH PLANS TO RECALL TROOPS

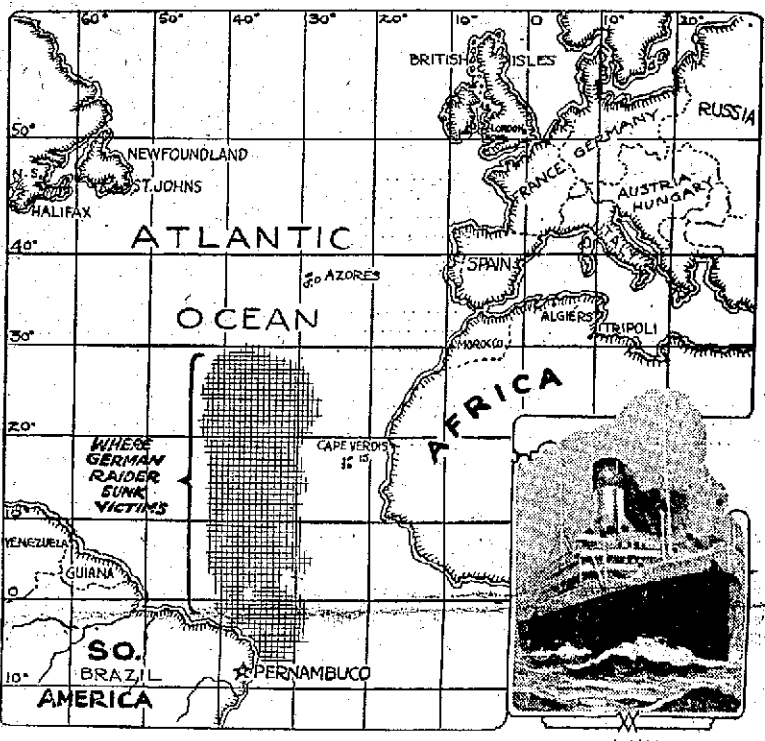

Washington, Jan. 19.—Although Villa's operations have injected confusing factors into the situation in northern Mexico and along the border, there is every indication that the administration is going forward with its plans for early withdrawal of Pershing's expedition and demobilization of the national guard.

Officials here have insisted that it was impossible to set a definite date for the troop movements because of the uncertainty of transportation facilities and because the situation at the border is constantly changing. It has been indicated clearly, however, that unless there was some unexpected development, Pershing's withdrawal and the return of the guardsmen would be ordered within a few days, possibly by the end of this week.

Border dispatches today transmitting rumors that the guardsmen would be ordered home within five days were heard by war department officials without comment.

WIDE AREA IN NORTH ATLANTIC IS GRAVEYARD OF ALLIES' SHIPS

Twenty million dollars' worth of allied shipping have been destroyed in the North Atlantic by the latest German sea terror, according to well authenticated reports. One of the finest of the lost vessels was the French liner Voltaire, which left Liverpool for New York on November 23 and was never heard from again. She was of 8,618 tons gross, 455 feet long, 58 feet beam and was built at Glasgow in 1907.

'DRYS' WANT SUNDAY, BRYAN AND ROOSEVELT TO CAMPAIGN IN OHIO

Columbus, O., Jan. 19.—With dry leaders satisfied that they have formed the solidist battle front ever presented in an engagement with liquor interests of Ohio, nearly 2,000 delegates who remained through the closing sessions of the state dry convention left for their homes today.

"It's the first time anti-liquor forces of Ohio were ever so united with so little friction and so much harmony in the ranks," said Wayne R. Wheeler, Anti-Saloon League counsel today.

Superintendent White of the Ohio Anti-Saloon League announced the executive committee representing all organizations interested in the campaign for the state-wide prohibition amendment will begin forming its plans at once and county chairmen will be put to work immediately organizing for the coming campaign.

Delegates cheered lustily when Superintendent White told them at the closing session he hoped to see dries of Ohio sending out three trains before next fall's election—one bearing Theodore Roosevelt in one section of the state, one bearing William Jennings Bryan in another section, and the third carrying Billy Sunday through the middle of the state.

ROW STARTS IN HOOSIER LEGISLATURE OVER DATE WITH WM. J. BRYAN

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 19.—The Indiana senate has a date with William Jennings Bryan today. But opponents of the plan to have the Commoner address the upper legislative house early today discussed a plan to leave the Commoner "waiting at the church."

Bryan is scheduled to speak at 10:30. The senate goes into session at ten and a motion to adjourn may be made at any time, the schemers pointed out. And a motion to adjourn can be carried by a very small number favoring the adjournment.

In case this action is followed, Bryan will not have any one to talk to beside the doorkeeper when he arrives at the senate.

RAILROAD INSPECTOR DIES OF WOUNDS ON HEAD; YOUTH HELD

Cleveland, O., Jan. 19.—Charles James, Baltimore and Ohio inspector, died today from injuries to his head, caused, police say, by blows from an air hose, inflicted while he slept in a railroad shanty.

A boy giving his name as Lawrence Southall and age as fourteen, but who recently figured in a police case as Harry Raymond, 20, is held by the police, who assert he has confessed to beating James.

From men who were in the shanty police learned that a youth answering Southall's description was admitted to the shanty by James when the boy appeared nearly frozen.

James later fell asleep and the men left him and the boy alone. When they returned James was alone, unconscious, his head covered with blood.

Southall was arrested when he went to police headquarters to demand a watch taken from him at the time of his previous arrest. Police say the boy admitted stealing thirty-five cents and a watch from James and spending the money for food and cigarettes.

WANTED JUDGE TO SEND HIM BACK TO PRISON

Cleveland, O., Jan. 19.—The prison guard and cringing manner of Bill Murray, 63, yesterday, stamped him when he was led into municipal court today. His whispering "prison voice" confirmed the other tokens.

"Send me back, y'r honor; I ain't no use outside," said Bill. "I got to go back and die there."

Twenty years in the penitentiary had made Bill useless to society, in Bill's own opinion. He was picked up while carrying a new suitcase taken at the Union station.

Invasion Of Switzerland Contemplated By Germans To Free Alsace, Report

out of the congress are glad. They say frankly they are impatient with the leak investigation. They say it is detracting from "pursuit by congress of more serious business at hand."

Despite indisposition so far to concentrate on the president's program and necessary appropriations to keep the government running, congress, with only six weeks to go, can clean up and get away, many members think.

It is practically certain that if enough of the president's recommendations are passed to make a showing, he won't call in the new congress for an extra session. He will insist, however, that the vital elements of his railroad legislation—or at least "something as good"—be included in the finished business of the session.

Elza Frowine, of 1104 Monroe street, Friday was removed to the Hempstead hospital, where he will undergo a delicate operation, to be performed by Cincinnati surgeons.

London, Jan. 19.—"Swiss newspapers assert that masses of German troops are concentrating near Basel," says the Exchange Telegraph's Geneva correspondent. The Swiss general staff is convinced that an invasion of Switzerland is contemplated with a view to freeing Alsace from the French invader.

Huntington's Basketballers To Test Strength Of P. H. S.

Up River Lads Play Here Saturday Night

Saturday evening in the high school gym the most important local game on the high school basketball schedule will be fought between P. H. S. and Huntington high school's heavy and fast quintet. It will start at eight o'clock.

The locals have been practicing hard for this game as next to Ironton Huntington is Portsmouth's most hated rival in all fields of sport.

Several afternoons were given over to the practice of equals and team work. Coach Trout deciding that these points will have to be worked cleverly if the locals are to turn in a victory. All the locals are passing the ball nicely and each knows his signals like a book.

In 1915 P. H. S. won a game and lost a game with Huntington. In 1916 the same story was repeated, P. H. S. winning by a score of 45 to 25 and losing by the close score of 21 to 20.

So far P. H. S. and H. H. S. are tied for basketball honors. Captain Baesman will have his regular lineup on the floor when the whistle sounds. Ed Edwards, with Shotmaker, Shumway and Wells guards and Besman center.

The biggest basketball crowd in the high school is looked for as every one of the 300 members of the Athletic Association have promised to be on hand. Don't forget the game of the year is on tomorrow night.

DARCY IS NO CHEAP PUG, NO INDEEDY

New York, Jan. 18.—Tom O'Rourke put more or less of a finger into the pugilistic pie yesterday by signing both Jack Dillon, light heavy-weight champion, and Middleweight Cham Al McCoy to meet Les Darcy, providing O'Rourke can obtain the signature of the wonder boy of Maitland. O'Rourke will guarantee Dillon $15,000 if Darcy will face him, and he will hand over $10,000 in cash to McCoy should Darcy sign to fight him for the middleweight championship of the world.

O'Rourke did not say what he would pay Darcy but it is understood he has offered the Australian $20,000 in either case.

Spiders vs. Corpsknuckers.

By taking three in a row from the leaderless Clod Hoppers in the Play Spencer House alleys, last night, the Cement Specialists pulled themselves to a tie for second place in the Masonic league race, right alongside the Ironclads and Rebels.

The games pulled by the Specialists would not win them any high honors in a Pop-Wes tournament, but as the McCoy players explained they did not have to show their best punches, because they knew they had their opponents beaten before the games started. George Freund, captain of the Specialists, was high man so far as individual scores are concerned. The good natured druggist and ice cream manufacturer hit the 1000 wood for 181 in his middle game. Ed Leach shot 177 for the Clod Hoppers, and then subsided to 132, but came like a race horse in his last game and huge up a score of 179.

The improvement shown by McCoy forces Captain Jackson of the Clod Hoppers to believe the wholesale grocery man is yet destined to knock several spots off the bowling moon. Dan Lloyd of the Specialists showed considerable improvement. The scores:

"I am ready to take the same action I did in the Archer case with any ball player who wishes it," Weeghman said. The Cub payroll last season was $145,000. It will have to be cut to $100,000 to make the club a paying proposition, Weeghman said.

BE BACK IN MAJORS

Fred Falkenberg.

Fred Falkenberg, ex-Cleveland Indian and a star twirler with the Indianapolis Association team last season, is said to have all the stuff today that he had in his best big league days and to be worthy of another chance in fast company. ## MARKET CONTINUES STRONG

Notwithstanding the adverse influence of four strong features buoyancy and strength characterized the steel and iron market for the past week. Congestion on the railroads gave accentuated trouble and one company, the Detroit Iron and Steel company, resorted to the expediency of buying fifty old freight cars and repairing them itself so they could be used in delivering pig iron in Detroit. An English firm was awarded a contract for making American shells, its bid being far below that of any home plant. The Pennsylvania railroad withdrew its inquiries on over two hundred thousand tons of rails and operations were somewhat restricted generally by a number of big plants having to shut down on account of gas shortage. On top of this some eastern furnaces had to bank on account of inability to obtain raw materials.

Perhaps, one reason why neither prices nor tone yielded perceptibly before these retarding conditions, was rather brisk offerings by other railroads and inquiries by shippers for 1915 delivery, braced by the fact that any shortage forced now by these abnormal conditions means nothing more than a guarantee for more activity in production when they are cleared away, as orders on hand still crowd and the demand for their filling becomes more imperative with demand for delivery and the new business that is bound to come forward.

Considering the depth of the snow the Billy Butt-In, Bill Cheatwood and the rest of the weather men are acting quite decently.

Some fellows never get enough, or rather they think others never get enough. Joe Carr is trying to organize another Ohio State base ball league.

The major league ball players are threatening to go out on a strike. That is what most of them have been doing for, lo, these many years, especially if they happened to belong to the Cincinnati Reds. But this is a different sort of a strike they say, so we hope it will not extend to the local Boy Scout League. Horrors! If it did where else out of town Si Straus and Jim Potts could go to do their roofing?

There was a regular inundation of bills at the session of the legislature Wednesday. No regard whatever for economy, no thought of what paper costs.

From the way the coating is peeling off of many houses, it looks as though this advocate of the beautiful and the good would have to immigrate another paint-up campaign and as a side line, as it were, the use of a better quality of paint. Maybe though as the man-that-steps-on-the-street would say, there is something in the climatic conditions here peculiarly deleterious to paint.

Are we mere men never to have anything we can call all our own, except our exclusive wicked ways? Women's "overalls" have appeared and the worst thing woman, still God bless her, has appeared in them. They were offered to the trade, in New York, last week, and six hundred merchants laid in a stock, reporting a huge demand for them as soon as they were displayed in their windows.

The dries hail it as a choice blessing that the sale of liquors is going to be congressionally shut off in the District of Columbia, but all they promise other blessings to follow, the shortening of the sessions of congress, for instance.

Tom Lawson is telling 'em all right, but somehow the public does not seem inclined to take Tom either seriously or credulously.

The inception of the government parcel post system was heralded as the ruin of the express business. Parcel post, though a scant three years old, has grown to immense proportions that it proportions never dreamed of, yet there is at least one express company that is doing business at the old stand and quite profitably, judging from its dividends. It has a regular one of $3 on a share and thrown in an extra one of $33.33 for good measure.

Mayor Kaps says: "We didn't build the waterworks, but run it." No and yes in a way. A former Republican administration, casting gleefully aside a cherished Democratic plan, built the waterworks after its own ideas and another Republican administration has been chosen to run it, though neither building nor operation can be classed as a conspicuous success, though that isn't saying Mayor Kaps is to blame at all.

Some legislative fellow has offered a bill providing for a five-cent bounty on rats. Oh, rats!

West Virginia is trying in dead ways to repudiate the thirteen million dollar judgment the federal supreme court gave Virginia against her. Fine example to set her citizenship.

Governor Cox is firing the True Blues quite briskly. Keep applying the boot to 'em, Jimmie, keep it going, good and strong.

Now we know this taxation matter is really of some importance. Governor Cox has declined absolutely to see any place hunters until it is settled.

THE "LIMIT"

THE WET AND DRY MOON

In a contemporary an animated controversy has been going on between the editor and one of his female contributors as to what is a dry moon and, conversely, what is a wet moon. The lady may have the last word in insisting the moon with the tips pointing up is the dry moon, but the editor has the better of the argument in maintaining that she is mistaken and the horns pointing down means a dry moon. It is a tradition, according to his assertion, that when the crescent of the pale goddess of the night turned up so the Indian could hang his horn on the lower point without it slipping off he promptly proceeded to hang up his horn and hug close to his wigwag, because he knew the weather was likely to be too stormy to range far off on the hunt. Then in addition to this long established and frequently demonstrated correct tradition, even the most ignorant must realize that a new moon with tips up is a wet moon, because it undoubtedly holds a vast amount of water, while a new moon which tips down is of course absolutely dry as it couldn't hold any moisture in that position, any more than a dipper held bottom-side up. More than this every month with gentle Luna holding up her hands, as it were to the highest heavens, it has stormed, rained, snowed or done something on an average of every other day and most every day.

While the editor apparently has the best of the argument, we must agree with his charming opponent, that he has invented the Indian tradition and his quotation of the recent nasty weather is but another case of the exception proving the rule. Ever since tradition was a part of the lore of man it has stood that the down-turned crescent was a wet moon and that's backed by common sense, for the moon could not spill out moisture if it were right-side up with ears, or otherwise. The old smart alec of a newspaper man is simply playing up words and he knows the lady is not talking about the condition of the moon itself, but that which it is precipitating upon the earth.

Statistics show strange, or unexpected things. For instance the first data issued by the federal government on births and deaths show there are more births, per ratio of population, in Connecticut and Massachusetts, than any other two states in the union, and Maine has the least. The families of immigrants are much larger, as a rule, than those of natives.

A measure has been introduced to double the minimum of all awards provided for by the workman's compensation act. That may be as sly a way of killing it, as it is certain, should the measure pass.

VERDICT FOR $30,000

Williamson, W. Va., Jan. 19.—One of the biggest verdicts in personal injury damage suits in the history of the state was returned here today in favor of Chester A. Dunphy, against the N. & W. railway. Dunphy was an instructor while the company was installing electric motors, and lost a leg and an arm. He was given $30,000.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.
BY O. O. MCINTYRE.

New York, Jan. 19.—The other day I missed Fritz, who is my favorite delicatessen clerk. He has the largest dill pickles in town and the best cucumber—two of my choice delicacies. His employer told me that Fritz had deserted his post to dabble in Wall Street.

He has a stunning roadster and wears $5 neckties now when he used to make $12 a week. Fritz is just one of the hundreds of young men making meagre salaries who are assisting in the big Wall Street Drive.

Never has Wall Street had so much money and never has the public shared so freely of it. Two automobile salesmen of my acquaintance have given up high-salaried jobs to play the market. Outsiders, it seems, are running away with the market, but for how long no one seems to know.

A tip that the price of gasoline is again to take a jump in the general direction of the sky has caused a rush on the curb for oil stocks. The small purchaser is now dabbling in oils, as the artists say.

The Rice Oil company has just announced leadholds on 40,000 acres of land in the Kentucky fields and although the stock has not yet been placed on the curb the promoters are said to be swamped with buying orders.

It is also said that the supply of oil in reserve is diminishing and this will cause an oil boom in the spring. Maximilian Foster, the writer, took a census of eight men he found in a brokerage shop the other day.

One was a Long Island gardener, another a shoe clerk and the rest in order were a druggist, a university professor, a dentist, a porter, a retail butcher and a bartender in an uptown cafe.

If people do not stop confessing that they killed Policeman William McAuliffe, of New York, they are going to be arrested for obtaining free transportation under false pretenses. Six men have already been brought to New York from distant cities after confessing the crime was theirs.

The other day another detective started to Weston, W. Va., for Otto Ties, the latest admitter. An hour later it was found that he could not have committed the crime. He will now be forced to remain in Weston, however severe that may seem.

A subway pickpocket, who apparently has no future at all in his line, tried to get into the hip-pockets of a newspaper reporter who was on his way to Park Row the other morning. The scribe allowed the man to roam around through his pockets, and when he had finished slapped his wrists. A half hour later the same pickpocket was trying to pick the pockets of a magazine writer who lives in Washington Square and eats at Polly's.

A bright young cartoonist, well-known in Newspaper Row, came to the office of his fellow cartoonists the other morning with his eyelids quivering like that of a man who had been casting dice long hours, and crying exhortations and supplications to the ivory cubes, such as "Eventuate, O thou seven! For for mine infant has dearth of a pair of new sandals." As Demosthenes would say, he was slightly jingled.

The young girl stenographer, very much interested in him, asked him what he had been doing.

"Shooting dice all night long," he replied with a sigh.

A look of horror came over her face. "Shooting dice?" she gasped.

"I think that is horrible. For, remember no matter how small and insignificant they may be, they know pain just as we do, and to shoot them is murder."

But the cartoonist was too tired to argue.

Boost For Gov. Stanley

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 19.—So commendable was the conduct of Governor Stanley in his promptness in stopping the mob at Murray, in the opinion of Dr. Edwin A. Amistead, of Boston, that he has written him that he would like to see him at the head of the nation.

Spats

Spats are short, violent affairs indulged in by some human beings and most levers.

"They don't amount to much in either case, but they're awful while they last."

Spats usually reach from the ankles to the instep and from the front door to the gate. They are worn just under the calf and over the protest of every right thinking person.

Some folks naturally have big feet. Others wear pink spats. Baldness can't be helped and stammering may be condoned, but spats are a man's own fault.

Ninety-Nine

"Professor Jenks, ninety-nine, was married today, going to Japan on honeymoon; big story; you'll have to send out and see him."

The cub reporter, having been assigned to "cover" a college story, telephoned this "hot tip" to the city editor.

The city editor called his star reporter.

"And be sure to get pictures of 'em both," was his parting instruction.

An hour later the star reporter joined the city editor.

"Say, Jenks is of the class of '99; he's not ninety-nine years old," he said.

"That cub! I wonder who put 'at over on him,'" said the city e.—Exchange.

No 2x3 Face

The fight between the Irishmen was waxing fast and furious. It had progressed to the extent that each had forgotten what it was about originally, and they were wholly oblivious of the gathering crowd until an urbane and genteel person in a frock coat put in: "Come, come, my man!" he said gently plucking Casey by the sleeve. "You don't want to fight—I can tell it by your looks! Your face is too benign."

"Two be nine! Two be nine, is it, ye spalpeen?" bellowed Casey. "Me face is two be nine, is it?" And wallop went the gent in the frock coat into the muddy gutter.—Snap shots.

Getting Back at Auntie

A certain auntie taught one of her nephews the following: "A sheep and a hog walking through the pasture, Sheep says, 'Hog, can't you walk a little faster?'"

In a few days the auntie and nephew were going to church, and the nephew was walking slow. Unthoughtfully the aunt turns and says, "Can't you walk a little faster?" The nephew remembering the verse, turns angrily to his auntie, and trying to right her, exclaims, "Don't you call me a hog." The auntie is well amused that it is some time before she can explain to the rest of the crowd what is the matter.—(Contributed)

Whoope! Gas Supply Normal; Big Plants Have Resumed

The gas supply both from a domestic and industrial standpoint is normal again in Portsmouth.

Have you heard any better news than this lately? Of course you haven't and there will be rejoicing all round especially among the manufacturers, who depended exclusively on gas for fuel.

Announcement was made last night by Supt. John McMillan of the local gas company that the industrial supply of gas, which had been cut off for more than a week had again become normal and various plants using it were immediately notified.

Nowhere was the news received with more genuine pleasure than it was in the plant of the Whitaker-Glessner Company, whose plant with the exception of four open hearth furnaces, which were operated by crude oil, have been idle for over a week.

Closely on the heels of the announcement that the gas supply had become normal came the information from the offices of the Whitaker-Glessner company that the blooming mill in their plant had already resumed operations this morning, also the 18-inch bar mill and three additional open hearth furnaces, making seven furnaces now in operation. The sheet mills will resume some time Sunday night, it was stated at the Sunday night, it was stated at the steel plant this morning.

The domestic gas pressure has been normal right along in the city.

EVERYBODY BUSY; ARRESTS ARE FEW

Since Monday there has been but one arrest by the police and but one arrest by the county authorities.

The reason for this unusual condition, is the topic of considerable speculation among those who are in touch with the situation.

One reason assigned for the abnormal conditions, is that during cold weather especially when the snow is so deep, that most of those who are frequent violators of the city ordinances, are busy, for the first time during the year perhaps, earning money by shoveling snow from walks.

The advocates of the foregoing theory claim that after the snow begins to melt, that this class of men will cause the police department considerable trouble. In other words, a quiet period presages a lively termination with inadequate jailing quarters for the offenders.

One of the reasons given was that there was so much work that most everyone was busy and did not have time to think about getting on a "slant."

Last Saturday and Sunday the jail, which was almost deserted was completely filled. More than thirty prisoners were brought in and confined. Most of these men were employed at big industrial plants in this city, and on Saturday evening fell "off the water wagon."

For the past five months there has not been a single crime of a serious nature reported at the sheriff's office. There has been a marked decrease at the city prison.

Several of the habitual offenders have been sent to the county jail for various offenses by Mayor H. H. Kaps.

Today Portsmouth is without prisoners who are waiting to be arraigned on serious charges.

HEARST CLAIMS NEWS GATHERING METHODS ARE STRICTLY LEGAL

New York, Jan. 19.—Answering the charge of the Associated Press that International News Service agents have been guilty of pilfering war dispatches since their expulsion from French and English territory, officials of William R. Hearst's International News Service yesterday submitted affidavits to Judge Hand in the question of whether the Associated Press is entitled to an injunction to prevent its rival from utilizing its news.

The affidavits deny that the International News has stooped to bribery or has stolen tips from the Associated Press wires, as is alleged in the complaint. It is admitted, however, that certain stories were obtained from the bulletins and early editions of papers supplied by the Associated Press. This, Samuel Untermyer, chief counsel for the Hearst concern, told the court is necessary occasionally and is legitimate business for any news agency.

Judge Hand remarked that he was inclined to believe that one news concern could not present another from appropriating the information contained in a bulletin which had become public property, but Fred L. Jennings, of Stearns, Jennings & Russell, attorneys for the Associated Press, contended that it would be the duty of a news association obtaining a tip through a bulletin to have the news reported by its own employees before sending it out as its own matter.

Voluntarily affidavits were submitted by the attorneys for the

SHE WAS OLD, POORLY DRESSED, AND EVIDENTLY IN WANT HERSELF, BUT SHE FED THE BIRDS

(By Louise Griswold)

"I got no more, no more, for dem—the pretty birds."

"I ought to have some corn," cried the little wizened old woman, pointing to two slate-blue pigeons greedily eating the bread crumbs on a board on top of a pile of snow by the curbing edge.

Her calico sleeves showed through the rents in the old black sweater, worn almost gray. She rubbed her coal-grimed hands together as she shivered, standing in her slanting, tumble-down doorway on Front street. She had just gathered up a few lumps of coal near where a steamer was being coaled.

"Sometimes, there nine or eleven birds. They're glad to see me come. Soon as I come out they look for it—what I give them to eat. They're so glad, so glad."

Her old cracked voice quivered, and the one unlovely tooth showed from her lips blue with the cold.

"I had a sweet potato. I got no more bread crumbs. I ought to have corn for them." Her voice rattled against the lone tooth.

"I cut up the sweet potato. I thought they would like it when the bread is gone."

As she gazed at the greedy pigeons, a light gleamed in her faded blue eyes, which still retained some of the luster of the corn flowers of Saxony, among which she likely roamed in a care-free girlhood.

"O-h, my back, it hurts so." The words were forced out, but a gleam of tenderness passed over her face as she watched the hungry birds.
